33rd Annual Social Work Day at the United Nations

Theme: Refugees and Displaced Persons: Ensuring Dignity and Worth

The International Federation of Social Workers

(<http://www.ifsw.org/intro.html>) and the International Association of School of Social Work (<http://www.iassw-aiets.org/>) are pleased to announce that the 33rd Annual Social Work Day at the United Nations is scheduled for Monday, April 4, 2016 from 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Please arrive to the UN before 9:45 a.m. as registration will close at 9:45 a.m.

Social Work Day at the UN is a gathering place for people around the world who are working to make a difference. For 33 years students, practitioners, and educators have been convening at the UN to learn more about the UN, innovative projects and issues related to International Social Work and the critical role Social Work plays in the international arena.
