

SDGS, CLIMATE CHANGE AND SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

MONDAY MARCH 26, 2018 FROM 9:45 AM—12:00 PM

United Nations Headquarters — New York Conference Room 4

For 35 years students, practitioners, and educators have been convening at the UN to learn more about the UN agenda, innovative projects and issues related to international social work and the critical role social work plays in the international arena. This year speakers will highlight sustainable development goals that may relate to social work practice.

There is no registration fee to attend Social Work Day at the UN. Check-in will begin at 8:30 am outside of the UN. All attendees must be registered, no walk-ins can be accommodated.

The Global Student Conference will be held on Sunday, March 25, 2018 from 1 – 5 p.m. at Fordham University School of Social Service, 113 W 60th Street, New York, NY 10023

Online registration through the Social Work Day website: <http://www.monmouth.edu/UNDay>

Registration for both events will close when we reach our capacity.

Please be advised that in accordance with UN security procedure anyone coming to the UN after 9:30 am time will NOT be admitted to the conference.

Online registration for Social Work Day begins on Tuesday, February 20, 2018 at 1 p.m. EST.

2 CE hours will be available for licensed social workers in New York State or New Jersey.

A processing fee of $10 for CE credit must be paid at time of registration.

Online registration for the Student Conference begins on Wednesday, February 21, 2018 at 1 p.m. EST.

There is a $10 registration fee for this event.

35th Annual Social Work Day at the United Nations – New York

