

Capacity Building in IASSW 2016 - 2018

The IASSW Capacity Building Committee supports the growth and quality of social work education across the globe

Regional Resource Centres (RRC)

Peking University is our first Regional Resource Centre. Through RRCs IASSW wishes to support hubs and networks that can promote social work education.

In 2016, Massey University joined Peking University as the second Regional Resource Centre.

Would your university like to be a RRC?

Supporting Vietnam to develop social work education 2015 – 2017

Social Work Education in Vietnam

IASSW, the Vietnamese Association of Social Work Education, and the Asian Pacific Association of Social Work Education held its second set of conferences in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City in 2017 to support social work education in Vietnam. The themes of these conferences addressed community social work with children and families and community mental health for adults.

ORGANIZERS

International Association of Schools of Social Work (IASSW)
 Asia & Pacific Association of Social Work Education (APASWE)
 Vietnam Association for Vocational Education Training and Social work Profession (VAVETSOW)
 IASSW Regional Resource Centre, PekingU—HKPolyU China Social Work Research Centre

SPONSOR & DONOR

Mini-conferences

IASSW board meetings are hosted by member universities. Contingent to each board meeting, regional social work educators and program representatives gather to learn together and share experiences.

January 2017 – Nairobi

IASSW in collaboration with Dept of Sociology and Social Work, UoN
 ‘Intersecting social work ethics in academic writing, training and field supervision for ethical social work practice’

January 2018 – Zagreb
 IASSW in collaboration of Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb
 “Social Work Education and Practice – Dance on Wire”

Programme Consultations

IASSW is invited by universities to undertake peer evaluation of their programme. Most recent Programme Consultations were in the United Arab Emirates and in Sri Lanka. The fees (sliding scale) provide income to support other Capacity Building Activities.

Invitations to support Capacity Building

IASSW receives invitations to help in the design or running of programmes to develop and support educators. IASSW along with Regional Associations can provide the names of experienced and culturally sensitive educators for conferences and other events.
