CAPACITY BUILDING IN IASSW 2014 - 2016

Capacity Building, offered through the IASSW Education Committee, is a service to members of IASSW.

Regional Resource Centres (RRC)

Peking University is our first Regional Resource Centre. Through RRCs IASSW wishes to support hubs and networks that can promote social work education.

Would your university like to be a RRC? See the website or email Rashmi Pandey at Rashmi@iassw-aiets.org

Supporting Vietnam to develop social work education 2015 – 2017

The National Association in Vietnam invited IASSW and APASWE to support the development of over 100 educators and practitioners through a programme of annual residential workshops throughout Vietnam. IASSW raises funds to support the attendance of educators and mainly regional educators.

Joint day conferences

IASSW board meetings are hosted by member universities. Following the board meetings mini conferences are held, with invites locally and nationally, to discuss ideas of international and national interest.

January 2015 – Vancouver, Canada

Advancing the social work profession across borders: Promoting international collaboration in education, research, knowledge exchange and credential recognition

July 2015 – Medellin, Colombia

Social Work Today: Challenges in Building Peace

January 2016 – Shanghai, China

Specialization Training of International and Domestic Oriented Medical Social Work and Mental Health Social Work

Programme Consultations

IASSW is invited by universities to undertake peer evaluation of their programme. Most recent Programme Consultations were in the United Arab Emirates and in Sri Lanka. The fees (sliding scale) provide income to support other Capacity

Supporting Capacity Building

IASSW receives invitations to help in the design or running of programmes for social work educators. IASSW, working with Regional Associations, can provide the names of experienced and culturally sensitive educators for conferences and other events. Depending on funds, there can be support for longer term partnerships with national associations, along with the regional associations, such as Vietnam, above. All projects with IASSW are a partnership with local people determining the
